

Welcome to Seaford PS

Last Updated Friday, 25 August 2006

Our school community works in partnership to assist the total development of children within the whole school situation, encouraging them to understand their rights and responsibilities and to become reasoned thinkers and independent workers. We encourage the development of positive self-esteem, a desire to learn and the ability to work as part of a team, in all children.