The Language Unit students have been looking at their goals and strategies needed to help improve them. We also made a Zen Garden where we painted rocks and wrote reminders on the back of them to help us achieve excellence.

Aelou